

Psalm 2

1. Why do all the na - tions rage, and the peo - ples plot a vain thing?
4. He who sits in the heav'ns shall laugh. The Lord shall hold them ~ in scorn.
7. I'll de - clare ~ Yah - weh's de - cree. He told me, "You are ~ my son.
10. There - fore now ~ be wise, O kings. Learn, you jud - ges of ~ the earth.

2. Kings of earth have set them - selves, and the ru - lers lay their plans
5. Then he'll speak to them in wrath, and dis - tress them in his rage, I've be - got - ten you to - day. 8. Ask of me and I will give
11. Wor - ship Yah - weh with rev' - rence, and re - joice with trem - ~ bling.

a - gainst Yah - weh and a - ~ gainst his A - noint - ed by say - ing:
say - ing, 6. "I in - deed have ~ set my a - noint - ed king to reign na - tions for your in - her - i - tance, for your own the ends of earth.
12. Kiss the son, lest his ire ~ rise and you per - ish in the way,

3. "Let us break a - way their bonds, and cast off from us their cords."
on the height of Zi - ~ on, e - ven on my ho - ly hill."
9. You'll break them with an i - ron rod, smash them like a pot - ter's jar."
for his wrath may soon flare up. Blest are all who trust in him.
