

Psalm 7:1-8

A meditation of David which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite

1.O LORD my God, in you I take ref - uge. De - li - ver me from all who pur - sue me.
3.O LORD my God, if I have done this thing, if in my hands there be in - i - qui - ty,
5.then let the en - e - my pur - sue my soul, and let him to my ru - in come on me.
6.Rise in your an - ger, LORD. Lift up your - self a - gainst the ra - ging of those troub - ling me.
And for their sakes re - turn un - to the heights. 8.O - ver the peo - ples will the LORD be judge.

2.Save me, lest, like a li - on, he should rend and tear my soul while there is none to save.
4.If I re - paid e - vil to those at peace with me, or plun - dered my foe with - out cause,
Yes, let him tread my life in - to the ground, and let him make my glo - ry dwell in dust.
A - wake for me to judg - ment you've or - dained, 7.and let the con - gre - ga - tion sur - round you.
Judge me ac - cor - ding to my right - eous - ness, O LORD, and my in - te - gri - ty in me.
