

Psalm 10:1-9

1. Why do you stand so far a - way, O LORD? Why do you hide your-
 3. The wic - ked boasts a - bout his soul's de - sire, bles - ses the gree - dy
 5. His ways pros - per. Your judg - ments are on high, a - bove his sight. He
 7. His mouth is full of cur - sing, guile and fraud. Un - der his tongue are His eyes watch stealth - i - ly the help - less one. 9. He crouch - es like a

- self in trou - bled times? 2. In pride the wic - ked per - se - cutes the poor. Let them be and ab - hors the LORD. 4. The wic - ked in his pride does not seek God. There is no sneers at all his foes. 6. He says in his heart, "I will not be moved. Nev - er will mis - chief and e - vil. 8. He sits in am - bush in the vil - la - ges. In se - cret li - on in his den. He lurks to catch th'af - flict - ed one. He'll catch th'af - flict - ed caught in schemes that they de - vised.

 God in an - y of his schemes.
 I be in ad - ver - si - ty."
 he mur - ders the in - no - cent.
 when he draws him in his net.