

Psalm 14

To the chief musician, a psalm of David

1. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They're vile.
2. From heav'n the LORD looks down up - on the sons of man,
* 3. They all have turned a - side. They have be - come cor - rupt.
4. O do the wor - kers of in - i - qui - ty not know,
 5. There they are in great fear, by ter - ror o - ver - whelmed,
6. You'd shame the poor man's plans. His ref - uge is the LORD.
When th'LORD the cap - tives of his peo - ple has brought back,

They've done a - bom - i - na - ble works. There is none who does good.
to see if an - y un - der - stands, if an - y seeks for God.
* There is none who does an - y good, no, not a sin - gle one.
who eat my peo - ple as their bread and call not on the LORD?
 for in the gen - er - a - tion of the right - eous God a - bides.
7. O that sal - va - tion for Is - r'el would out of Zi - on come!
then Ja - cob shall great - ly ex - ult and Is - ra - el be glad!
