

Psalm 17:1-6

A prayer of David

1. Lis - ten to right - eous - ness, O LORD. At - tend un - to my cry.
2. From your own pres - ence let, I pray, my vin - dic - a - tion come.
3. Now you my heart have tes - ted, and me vis - i - ted at night.
I've pur - posed that my mouth will not trans - gress. 4. As for men's works,
5. Up - hold my go - ings in your paths: my foot - steps will not slip.

Give ear un - to my prayer which ~ is not from de - ceit - ful lips.
O turn your eyes to look up - ~ on the things that are up - right.
In - deed, you have ex - a - mined ~ me, and noth - ing have you found.
by your lips' word I've kept a ~ way from the de - stroy - er's paths.
6. I've called you, for you'll an - swer, O God. Give ear and hear my speech.
