

Psalm 24

A psalm of David

1.Earth is the LORD's and all that it con - tains, the world and all of 3.Who shall a - scend the moun - tain of the LORD, and who shall stand with-5.He will re - ceive a bles - sing from the LORD, and right - eous - ness from 7.Lift up your heads, you gates! You an - cient doors, be raised! The glo - rious 9.Lift up your heads, you gates! You an - cient doors, lift up! The glo - rious those who dwell in it, 2.for he up - on the seas has found - ed it,

- in his ho - ly place? 4.The man whose hands are clean, whose heart is pure, his sal - va - tion's God. 6.This is the gen - e - ra - tion of those who king shall en - ter in. 8.Who is this glo - rious king? The LORD the strong king shall en - ter in. 10.Who is this glo - rious king? The LORD of hosts!

and on the floods he has es - tab - lished it.
who loves not van - i - ty, nor false - ly swears.
seek him, of Ja - cob, those who seek your face.
and might - y one, the might - y one in war.
The LORD of hosts! He is the glo - rious king.
