13.His soul shall dwell in good, his seed ~ shall in - her - ~ it the land.
16.O turn to me and be gra - cious, for I am des - o - late and poor.
20.Pre - serve my soul, and res - cue me from the hands of my en - e - mies.

those who ~ keep his cov - e - nant and who his tes - ti - mo - nies heed.
14.The se - cret coun - sel of the LORD is with those who ~ fear his name,
17.The trou - bles of my heart in - crease. O bring me out of my sor - rows.
O let me not be put to shame, be - cause I seek ref - uge in you.

11.For your name's sake, LORD, par - don my in - i - qui - ty, for it is great.
and he will make them know the ful - ness of his gra - cious cov - e - nant.
18.Con - si - der my af - flic - tion and my pain, and bear all of my sins.
21.Let up - right - ness, in - teg - ri - ty, pre - serve me, for I hope in you.

12.Who is the man who fears the LORD? He'll teach him in the way he'll choose.
15.My eyes are ev - er toward the LORD, for he'll pluck my feet from the net.
19.Look on my foes, for they are rife. With cru - el ha - tred they hate me.
22.Now ran - som Is - ra - el, O God, from all of his ca - la - mi - ties.
