

Psalm 27:1-6

A psalm of David

1. The LORD has been my light and my sal - va - tion. Whom then shall ~ I fear?
My ad - ver - sar - ies and my foes, were stum - bling and were fal - ~ ling down.
4. One thing I have asked from the LORD, and af - ter that thing I ~ will seek:
5. For in the day of e - vil he'll con - ceal me in his tab - er - na - cle,
6. Now shall my head be lif - ted up a - bove my foes sur - roun - ~ ding me,

The LORD has been the strong - hold of my life. Who shall make me a - fraid?
3. Al - though an ar - my should en - camp a - gainst me, my heart shall not fear.
that I may be a dwel - ler in the LORD's house through - out all my days,
and in the se - cret pla - ces of his tent there he will shel - ter me, and in his ta - ber - na - cle I will of - fer of - fer - ings of joy.

2. When e - vil men a - gainst me came, they wan - ted to de - vour my flesh.
Though war should rise to trou - ble me, in this will I be con - fi - dent.
to see the beau - ty of the LORD, and in his tem - ple to in - quire.
and he will lift me up on high. He will ex - alt me on a rock.
I will re - joice, and to the LORD I will sing joy - ful songs of praise.
