

Psalm 33:1-12

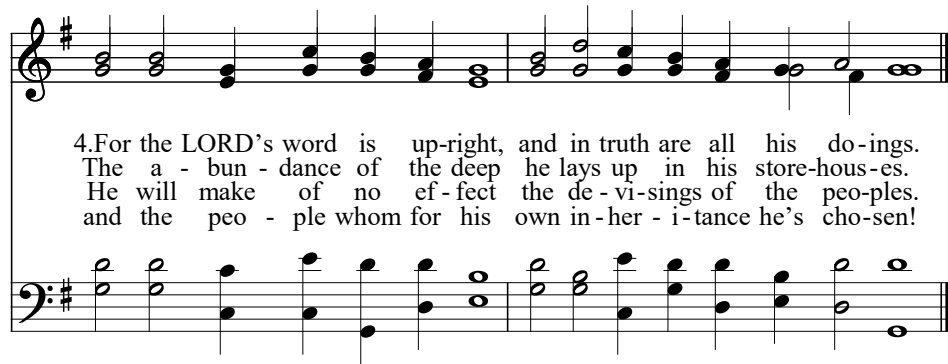

1. In the LORD re-joice, you right-eous. Praise is come-ly for the just.
5. He loves right-eous-ness and jus-tice, and his kind-ness fills the earth.
8. Let all earth now fear the LORD. Let all its dwell-ers stand in awe,
11. But the coun-sel of the LORD will stand un-changed for-ev-er-more,

2. Praise the LORD with harp. O sing to him with ten stringed in-stru-ment.
6. By his word he made the hea-vens, all their hosts by his mouth's breath.
9. For he spoke and it was fin-ished. He com-man-ded: it shall stand.
and to ev-ery gen-e-ra-tion will his heart's de-vi-sings be.

3. Sing a new song un-to him. Skill-ful-ly play with a loud noise,
7. He the wa-ters of the sea gath-ers as a heap to-geth-er.
10. Un-to no-thing has the LORD brought the coun-sel of the na-tions.
12. Bles-sed is the na-tion to whom the LORD made him-self be God,

4. For the LORD's word is up-right, and in truth are all his do-ings.
The a-bun-dance of the deep he lays up in his store-hous-es.
He will make of no ef-fect the de-vi-sings of the peo-ples.
and the peo-ple whom for his own in-her-i-tance he's cho-sen!
