

Psalm 38:12-22

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance

12. Those who seek my life en - snare me. Those who seek to do me hurt
13. I am like one deaf who hears not, like one dumb who can - not speak.
* 15. For in you I hope, O Yah - weh. You will hear me, Lord my God,
They ex - alt them - selves a - gainst me when they see my foot has slipped,
** 18. I con - fess all my trans - gres - sion. I am anx - ious o'er my sin,
Lo, all those who hate me wrong - ly have be - come too nu - mer - ous.
21. Don't a - ban - don me, O Yah - weh. Be not far from me, my God.

talk a - bout my com - ing ru - in. All day long they plot de - ceit.
14. Thus I am as one who hears not, in whose mouth is no re - sponse.
* 16. For I said, "O hear - ken to me, lest they should re - jice o'er me."
17. for I am a - bout to stum - ble. Ev - er with me is my grief.
** 19. but my foes are full of vig - or, and they are too strong for me.
20. Those who pay back good with e - vil are my foes, for I seek good.
22. O come quick - ly to as - sist me, Lord my sa - vior. Come to me.
