

Psalm 40:9-17

stanza 2 is a half stanza

To the chief musician, a psalm of David

9. With - in the great as - sem - bly I pro - claim good news of right - eous - ness.
 From the as - sem - bly I have not con - cealed your kind - ness and your truth.
 O let your lov - ing - kind - ness and your truth con - tin - ual - ly keep me,
 13. Be pleased, Yah - weh, to res - cue me; Yah - weh, make haste to be my help!
 16. Let all of those who seek ~ you re - joice and be ~ glad in you;

Be - hold, I'll not re - strain my lips from speak - ing. LORD, you your - self know.=>
 11. Do not with - hold from me, Yah - weh, your ten - der mer - cies from of old.||
 12. for, be - ~ hold, in - nu - mer - a - ble e - vils have sur - round - ed me.=>
 14. Let those who seek to take my soul be shamed and to con - fu - sion brought.=>
 Let those who love your sal - va - tion say, "May Yah - weh be mag - ni - fied!"=>

10. And I have not ~ kept hid - den your right - eous - ness with - in my heart.
 In - i - qui - ties o - ver - take me, I am not a - ble to look up;
 Let them be driv - en back and brought to shame who de - light in my hurt.
 17. I am a poor and need - y man, and yet the Lord con - sid - ers me.

I have de - clared your faith - ful - ness, and your sal - va - tion I have told.
 They're more than the hairs of my head; There - fore my heart fails with - in me.
 15. Let them be turned back for their shame, who say to me, "A - ha, a - ha!"
 You are my help and de - liv - 'er; O my ~ God, do not de - lay.
