

Psalm 41

To the chief musician, A Psalm of David

1. Bles - sed is he who looks up - on the poor. In trou - ble's day the
And you will not de - liv - er him o - ver un - to the will of
* 4. I said, "O LORD, be gra - cious un - to me and heal my soul; a -
6. And when he comes to see me, he speaks lies. His heart gath - ers mis -
 8. "A thing of be - li - al is lodged in him, When he lies down he'll
10. But you, O LORD, be gra - cious un - to me, and raise me up that
12. You've up - held me in my in - te - gri - ty, and set me in your

LORD will res - cue him. 2. The LORD will guard him and pre - serve his life.
his ~ en - e - mies. 3. The LORD will streng - then him in his sick - ness,
- * gainst you I have sinned." 5. My en - e - mies speak e - vil of ~ me,
- chief. He leaves and tells. 7. All those who hate me whis - per a - gainst me.
 not rise up a - gain." 9. My own close friend, who had my trust, who ate
I may pay them back. 11. By this I know that you are pleased with me; pres - ence ev - er - more. 13. Blessed be the LORD, the God of Is - ra - el,

A - bun - dant - ly will he be blessed on earth.
and you will change his bed when he is ill.
* "When will he die and his name per - ~ ish?"
A - gainst me they de - vise a hurt - ful thing.
 my bread, a - gainst me lif - ted up his heel.
my en - e - my does not re - joice o'er me.
For - ev - er and ev - er. A - men. A - men.