

Psalm 46

To the chief musician, a Psalm of the sons of Korah, a song for Alamoth

1. God is our shel - ter ~ and our strength, a ver - y pres - ent help in straits.
al - though the moun - tains ~ should be moved in - to the mid - dle of the seas,
* 4. There is a riv - er ~ whose bran - ches make glad the cit - y of our God,
5. God's in her midst: she'll ~ not be moved. God will help her when morn - ing breaks.
 7. The LORD of hosts, he ~ is with us. The God of Ja - cob's our ref - uge.
9. He makes wars cease to the end of earth. The bow he breaks, cuts off the spear,
I'll be ex - al - ted in the na - tions; I'll be ex - al - ted in the earth!

2. There - fore we will not be a - ~ fraid al - though the earth should be re - moved,
3. al - though its wa - ters rage and ~ foam and with its swel - ling moun - tains move.
* the ho - ly place in which are ~ found the tab - er - na - cles of the Most High.
6. The na - tions raged; the king - doms ~ moved; He raised his voice; the earth melt - ed.
 8. O come, be - hold the works of the LORD, his des - o - la - tions in the earth.
the char - iot he burns in the ~ fire. 10. Be still and know that I am God.
11. The LORD of hosts, he is with ~ us! The God of Ja - cob's our ref - uge.
