

Psalm 49:12-20

To the chief musician, a psalm of the sons of Korah

12.Nev - er - the-less a man who's held in ho - nor won't en - dure. For he is like the 14.Like sheep they are laid in the grave. There death shall feed on them, and in the mor-ning 16.Then do not be at all a - fraid when an - y - one grows rich, nor when the glo - ry 18.Al-though while he was liv - ing he had coun - ted him - self blessed, and men will sing your beasts of earth that per - ish and are gone. 13.In-deed, this is the way of all those who are the up - right shall have the rule of them. Their beau - ty shall rot in the grave far from their of his house in - crea-ses more and more, 17.be-cause he will take noth-ing with him when he praise when you are liv - ing pros - p'rous - ly, 19.un - to his fath - ers he will go. They'll nev - er fool - ish and al - so of their post - er - i - ty who think their words are sound. great es - tates. 15.God will re-deem me from the grave, for he will re-ceive me.

per - i - shes, and neith-er wealth nor glo - ry shall de-scend to be with him.
see the light. 20.Man in hon - or, not know-ing, is like beasts that per - ish.
