

Psalm 50:16-23

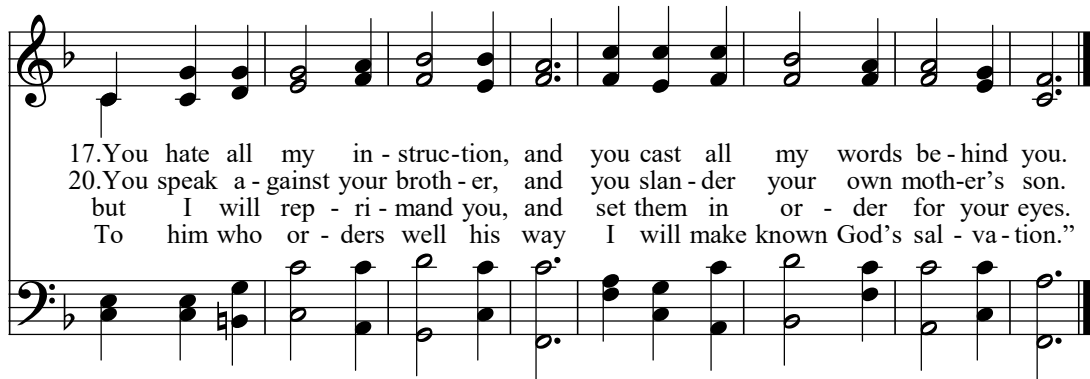

A Psalm of Asaph

16. But to the wic - ked ones God says, "Lis - ten to me. What right do you
18. See - ing a thief you join with him. You par - take with a - dul - ter - ers.
21. In - deed, all of these things you've done, and I kept si - lent for the time.
22. Now mark this, you who for - get God, lest I tear you in - to piece - es re - tain my stat - utes to de - clare, or take my cove - nant in your mouth?

19. You give your mouth to e - vil, and your tongue is har - nessed to de - ceit.
You thought with - in your heart that I was al - to - geth - er like your - selves, and there be no de - liv - er - er: 23. "Who brings thank - off' - rings hon - ors me.

17. You hate all my in - struc - tion, and you cast all my words be - hind you.
20. You speak a - gainst your broth - er, and you slan - der your own moth - er's son.
but I will rep - ri - mand you, and set them in or - der for your eyes.
To him who or - ders well his way I will make known God's sal - va - tion."
