

Psalm 53

To the chief musician, set to Mahalath, a contemplation of David

1. The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They're vile,
2. From heav - en God looks down up - on the sons of man
* 3. They all have turned a - way. They have be - come cor - rupt.
4. Oh do the wor - kers of in - i - qui - ty not know,
 5. There they are in great fear, where there had been no fear,
You have put them to shame, for God re - jec - ted them.
When God the cap - tives of his peo - ple has re - stored, and do ab - hor - rent wic - ked - ness. There is none who does good.

to see if an - y un - der - stands, if an - y seeks for God.
* There is none who does an - y good, no not a sin - gle one.
who eat my peo - ple as their bread, and do not call on God.
 for God scat - tered the bones of him who en - camped a - gainst you.
6. O that sal - va - tion for Is - r'el would out of Zi - on come!
then Ja - cob shall great - ly ex - ult and Is - ra - el be glad.
