

Psalm 61

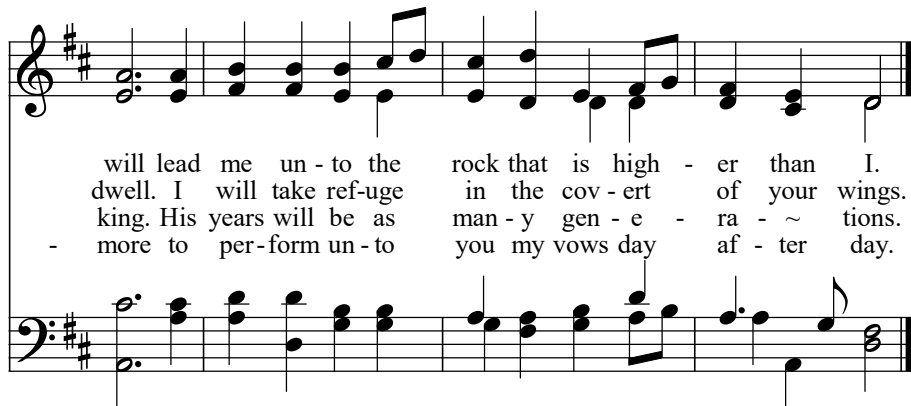

To the chief musician, on a stringed instrument, a psalm of David

1.Hear, O God, my loud cry. At - tend un - to my prayer. 2.From the end of the 3.For you have al - ways been a shel - ter un - to me, A tow - er of strength
5.For you, O God, have heard my vows. You have giv - en me the pos - ses - sion 7.He'll dwell for - ev - er be - fore God. Pre - pare for him lov - ing-kind-ness and earth un - to you I will call, and when my heart is o - ver-welmed in me you from be - fore the en - e - my 4.For - ev - er in your tab - er - na - cle I will of the ones who fear your name. 6.You will add days un - to the life - time of the truth, that they may pre-serve him. 8.Thus I will sing praise to your name for - ev - er will lead me un - to the rock that is high - er than I. dwell. I will take ref-uge in the cov - ert of your wings.

 king. His years will be as man - y gen - e - ra - ~ tions.
 - more to per-form un - to you my vows day af - ter day.