

Psalm 66

To the chief musician, a song, a psalm stanza 4 is a half stanza

1.To God, all earth, make joy - ful shout - ing. 2.Sing forth the glo - ry of his name,
5.O come and see God's might - y do - ings, his fear - ful deeds towards sons of man.
8.O bless our God, now all you peo - ples, and make the voice of praise be heard.
12.You have caused men to tram - ple on us. We went through wa - ter and through fire,
13.I will come in un - to your dwell - ling with a burnt of - fer - ing of beasts.
17.I with my mouth cried out un - to him, and he was ex - tolled with my tongue.

and make his prai - ses to be glor - ious. 3.“Your works are fear - ful,” say to God, 6.He turned in - to dry land the Red Sea. They through the riv - er went on foot.
9.He keeps our soul a - mong the liv - ing, and does not let our feet be moved.
But you brought us a - gain out from them in - to a ver - y spa - cious place.<END>
14.I'll pay the vows my lips have spo - ken, which my mouth ut - tered in dis - tress.
18.If I'd re - gar - ded an - y sin in my heart, the Lord would not have heard.

“and through the great - ness of your pow - er your foes shall cow - er be - fore you.
Yes, there were we re - joi - cing in him! 7.He rules for - ev - er by his power.
10.For you, O God, have test - ed. You have re - fined as sil - ver is re - fined.
15.I'll bring to you burnt sac - ri - fi - ces, in - cense of rams, both bulls and goats.
19.But tru - ly God has heard my cry - ing. He heed - ed the voice of my prayer.

4.All earth will wor - ship you and praise you. They will sing prai - ses to your name.”
His eyes keep watch up - on the na - tions. Let not the reb - els lift them - selves.
11.You brought us down in - to en - snare - ments. You laid af - flic - tion on our loins.
16.O come and hear, all you who fear God. I'll tell what he's done for my soul.
20.Bles - sed be God who heard my prayer and did not turn his kind - ness from me.
