

Psalm 72:1-11

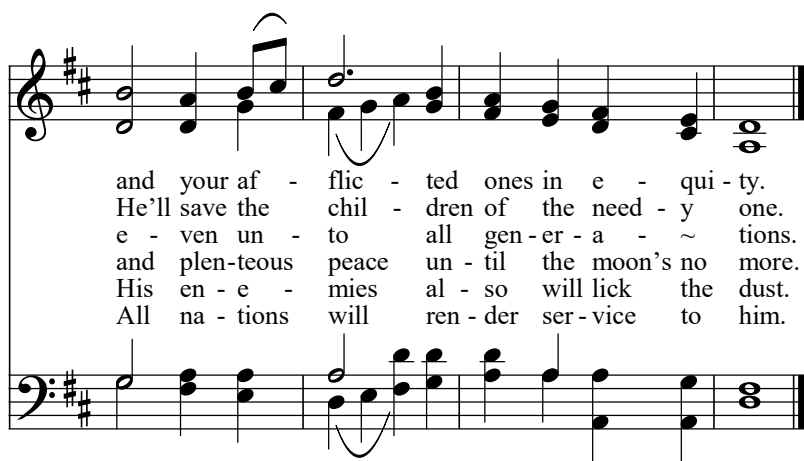

A psalm of Solomon

1.O God, give to the ~ king your e - qui - ty, your right-eous-ness un - ~
3.The moun-tains to the ~ peo-ple will bear peace, al - so the lit - tle ~
He'll break in pie - ces ~ the op - pres-~ sor. 5.Then they shall hold your ~ 6.He will come down like ~ rain on new-mown grass and like the show-ers ~
8.From sea to sea do - ~ min-ion he shall have, and from the riv - er ~ 10.The kings of Tar - shish and the isles will bring gifts, those of She - ba and of

to the roy - al son. 2.Your peo - ple he will judge in right - eous - ness, hills in right-eous - ness. 4.Th'af-lict - ed of the peo - ple he will judge, name in rev - er - ence for as long as the sun and moon en - dure, wa - ter - ing the earth. 7.In his days shall the right - eous flour - ~ ish,
to the ends of earth. 9.The des - ert dwel - lers will bow be - fore him.
Se - ba pay trib - ute. 11.In - deed, all kings will fall down be - fore him.

and your af - flic - ted ones in e - qui - ty.
He'll save the chil - dren of the need - y one.
e - ven un - to all gen - er - a - ~ tions.
and plen-teous peace un - til the moon's no more.
His en - e - mies al - so will lick the dust.
All na - tions will ren - der ser - vice to him.