

Psalm 73:1-15

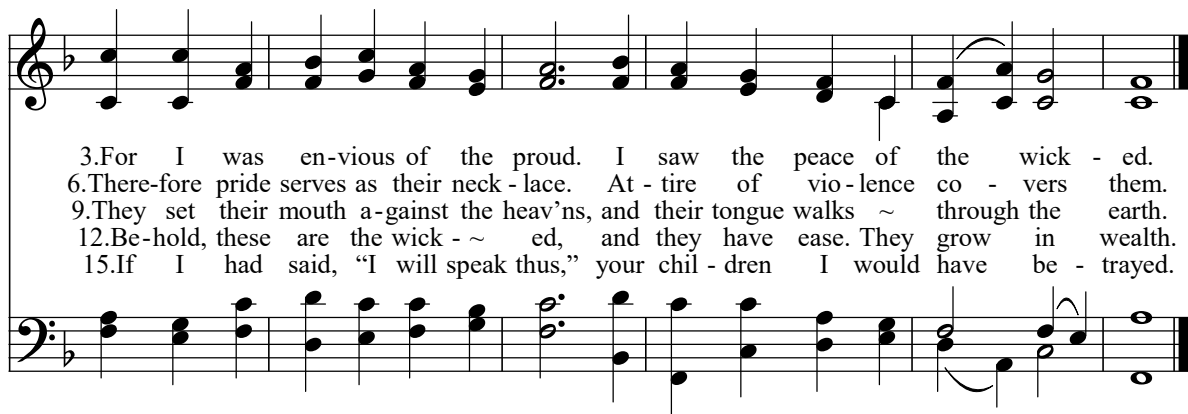

A psalm of Asaph

1. Yes, God is good to Is - ra - el, to those ~ who are pure of heart.
4. For in their death there are no pangs, but their bod - y is fat and strong.
7. Their eyes stand out with cor - pu - lence. Their heart's i - mag - in - ings run wild.
10. There - fore his peo - ple re - turn here, and drink up wa - ter with - out stint.
13. Sure - ly in vain I cleanse my heart, and wash my hands in in - no - cence,

2. But I, my feet were al - most gone. My steps had ver - y near - ly slipped,
5. They have no cares like oth - er men. They are not plagued ~ like a man.
8. They scoff and speak ma - li - cious - ly. They speak op - pres - sion from a height.
11. And they in - quire, "How does God know, and is know - ledge with the Most High?"
14. And I all day long have been plagued, and ev - ery mor - ning chast - ~ ened.

3. For I was en - vious of the proud. I saw the peace of the wick - ed.
6. There - fore pride serves as their neck - lace. At - tire of vio - lence co - vers them.
9. They set their mouth a - gainst the heav'ns, and their tongue walks ~ through the earth.
12. Be - hold, these are the wick - ~ ed, and they have ease. They grow in wealth.
15. If I had said, "I will speak thus," your chil - dren I would have be - trayed.
