16. And when ~ I thought to know this, it was ~ pain - ful in my eyes,
19. How sud - den - ly are they de - stroyed! They're ut - ter - ly con - sumed with fears.
22. And I was bru - tish, ig - nor - ant. Be - fore you I ~ was a beast.
25. Whom do I have in heav'n but you? There is no oth - er on the earth,
27. be - cause be - hold those far from you shall per - ish. You will de - stroy all

17. till I went to God's ho - ly place. I un - der - stood their lat - ter time.
20. As dreams when one a - wakes, O Lord, rous - ing, their like - ness you'll de - spise.
23. But I'm con - tin - ual - ly with you. You've ta - ken hold of my right hand.
and I de - sire none be - sides you. 26. My flesh and heart may fail in me, who de - sert you for har - lot - ry. 28. It's good for me to draw near God.

18. In slip - p'ry pla - ces you set them. You cast them down in - to ru - in.
21. Thus my heart was em - bit - ~ tered, and I was pierced ~ in my mind.
24. You will guide me with your coun - sel, and af - ter - ward take me to glo - ry.
but God is the rock of my heart, and my por - tion for - ev - er - more.
In the Lord Yah - weh I will trust, that I may de - clare all your works.
