

Psalm 75

To the chief musician, set to Do Not Destroy
A psalm of Asaph, a song

1. We are bring - ing thanks to you, O God the judge of the earth.
2. At the time that I ap - point I will judge with up - right - ness,
4. I say to the boast - ful ones, "Do not act with boast - ful - ness,"
6. For lift - ing up does not come from the east, nor from the west,
8. In the LORD's hand is a cup, and the wine in it foams up.
9. I will for - ev - er de - clare. I will sing a song of praise

Un - to you a - lone are we bring - ing now our thanks - giv - ing,
3. Earth it - self and all ~ those who dwell in it are dis - solved.
and un - to the wick - ed ones, "Do not lift ~ up the horn.
nei - ther from the wil - der - ness, 7. but it's God who is the judge.
It's well mixed with spi - ~ ces, and he pours ~ out from it.
to the God of Ja - ~ cob. 10. I'll cut off the wic - ked's horns, be - cause that your name is near your won - der - ful works pro - claim.

It is I, and I a - lone, who ~ lev - el its pil - lars.
5. Do not lift your horn on high. Do not speak with a stiff neck."
It is he who makes one low, and lifts up an - oth - ~ er.
Sure - ly the wic - ked on earth all shall drain and drink its dregs.
but the horns of the right - eous shall be ex - ~ al - ~ ted.
