A psalm of Asaph, a song

1. In Ju - dah God is re - cog - nized. In Is - ra - el great is his name.
4. Glor - ious you are, more ex - cel - lent than ev'n the moun - tains of the prey.
7. You, e - ven you, are to be feared, and who will stand be - fore your wrath?
10. The wrath of man will give you praise. The rem - nants of wrath you'll gird on.

2. In Sa - lem is his co - ~ vert, and in Zi - on his dwell - ling place.
5. The strong are spoiled. They sleep their sleep. No might - y men can use their hands.
8. You make your sen - tence heard from heav'n. The earth grows fear - ful and is still
11. Vow and pay to the LORD your God. Let all bring gifts to him who's feared.

3. He breaks the ar - rows of the bow there, the shield, the sword and the bat - ~ tle.
6. At your re - buke, O God of Ja - cob, the horse and char - iot are fast a - sleep.
9. when God un - to the judg - ment ri - ses to save all of the op - pressed of earth.
12. He'll cut off the spir - it of prin - ces. He is fear - ful to the kings of earth.
