To the chief musician, to Jeduthun

A psalm of Asaph

11. I will re - mem - ber Yah - weh's deeds. I will re - call your won - ders of old.
14. You are the God who works won - ders. You've made known to the peo - ples your strength.
17. The thick clouds poured out wa - ter, and the skies re - ver - ber - a - ~ ted sound.
19. Your way is in the sea, O God, and in the might - y deeps ~ your path.

12. I'll med - i - tate on all your work, and pon - der your ac - com - plish - ments.
15. Your arm your peo - ple has re - deemed, the sons of Ja - cob and Jo - seph.
Your ar - rows al - so flashed a - bout. 18. The sound of your thun - der was in Your foot - steps al - so are not known. 20. You led your peo - ple like a flock.

13. Your way is in the ho - ly place. Who is so great a god as God?
16. The wa - ters saw you, God. The wa - ters saw. They writhed. The depths trem - bled.
the whirl - wind. Light - nings lit the world. The earth al - so trem - bled and quaked.
As a shep - herd you led them by the hand of Mo - ses and Aar - on.
