

Psalm 79

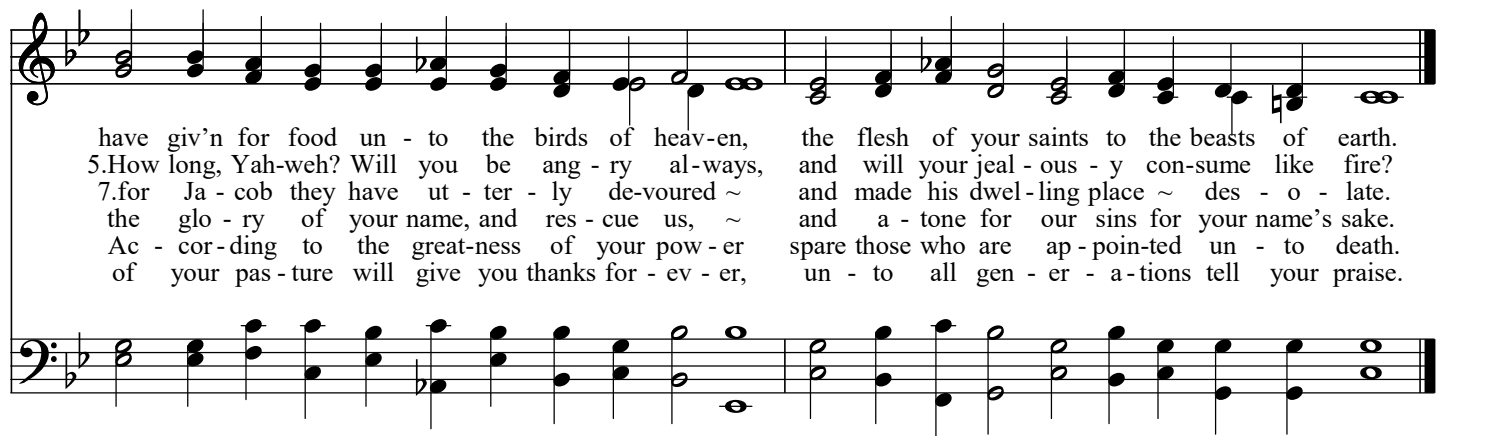

A psalm of Asaph

1.O God, in your in - her - i - tance the na - tions have come. Your ho - ly tem - ple they've de - filed.
3.They have poured out their blood like wa - ter a - round Je - ru - sa - lem. There's none to bur - y them.
6.Pour out your burn - ing in - dig - na - tion on the na - tions a - round us that do not know you,
8.Our for - mer sins re - mem - ber not a - gainst us. Let your com - pas - sions quick - ly come to us,
10.Why should the na - tions say, "Where is their God?" ~ Be known a - mong the na - tions in our sight.
12.And ren - der sev - en - fold un - to our neigh - bors in - to their bo - som, their re - proach and taunt,

They have re - duced Je - ru - sa - lem to ru - ins. 2.The fal - len corp - ses of your ser - vants they 4.We have be - come a re - proach to our neigh - bors, a scorn and mock - er - y to those a - round.
and on the oth - er king - doms of the world ~ those who re - fuse to call up - on your name, for we are brought in - to hu - mil - i - a - tion. 9.Help us, O God of our sal - va - tion, for A - venge the shed - ding of your ser - vants' blood. ~ 11.Let the groans of the pris' - ner come to you.
with which they've been re - proach - ing you, O Lord. ~ 13.So we, who are your peo - ple and the sheep have giv'n for food un - to the birds of heav - en, the flesh of your saints to the beasts of earth.

5.How long, Yah - weh? Will you be ang - ry al - ways, and will your jeal - ous - y con - sume like fire?
7.for Ja - cob they have ut - ter - ly de - voured ~ and made his dwel - ling place ~ des - o - late.
the glo - ry of your name, and res - cue us, ~ and a - tone for our sins for your name's sake.
Ac - cor - ding to the great - ness of your pow - er spare those who are ap - poin - ted un - to death.
of your pas - ture will give you thanks for - ev - er, un - to all gen - er - a - tions tell your praise.