

Psalm 107:23-32

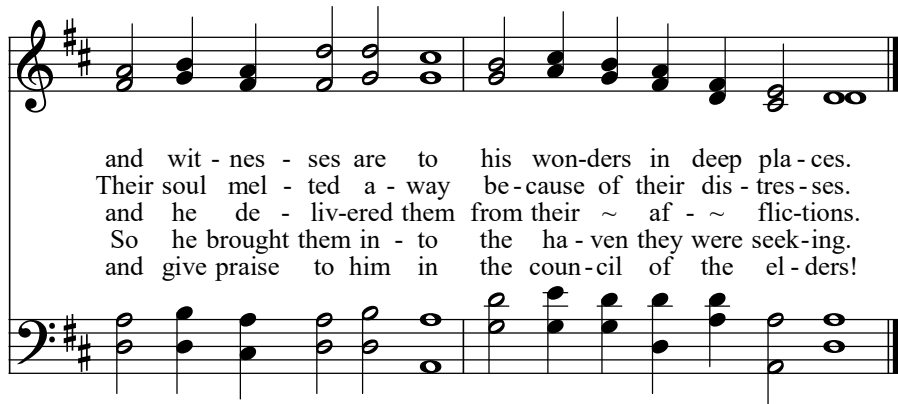

23. All those who go down un - to the sea to work in ships,
25. For he by his com - mand - ment rais - es the stor - my wind,
27. They stag - gered to and fro, and they reeled like drunk - en men,
29. He made the vi - o - lence of the tem - pest to be still,
31. Let men to the LORD give thanks for his lov - ing - kind - ness, that have their oc - cu - pa - tion up - on the wa - ters great, that bears a - loft the bil - lows and break - ers of the sea.

and they were at the end of all their sa - ga - cit - y.
so that all of its bil - lows were qui - et once a - gain.
and for his works of won - der un - to the sons of man!

24. these see the might - y works the LORD ac - com - plish - es there,
26. They mount - ed to the sky, In - to the depths de - scend - ed.
28. In their ad - ver - sit - y un - to the LORD they cried out,
30. Then they were glad be - cause they'd found a place of qui - et.
32. Let them ex - alt him in the gath' - ring of the peo - ple, and wit - nes - ses are to his won - ders in deep pla - ces.

Their soul mel - ted a - way be - cause of their dis - tres - ses.
and he de - liv - ered them from their ~ af - ~ flic - tions.
So he brought them in - to the ha - ven they were seek - ing.
and give praise to him in the coun - cil of the el - ders!
