

Psalm 90:1-9

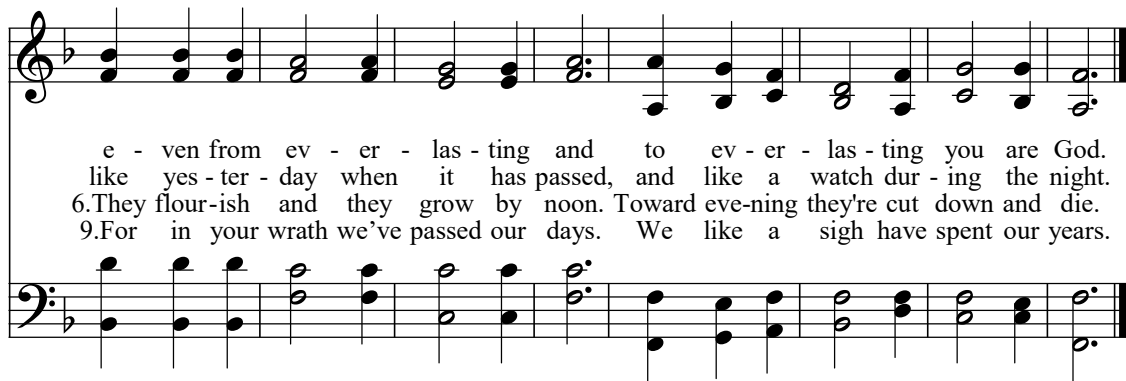

A prayer of Moses the man of God

1. In ev - ery gen - er - a - tion you, O Lord, have been our dwel - ling place.
3. Un - to de - struc - tion you turn man and say, "Re - turn, O sons of man,"
5. You sweep them all a - way as with a flood, and they are as a sleep.
7. For by your ang - er we're con - sumed, and by your fu - ry we're dis - mayed.

2. Be - fore the moun - tains were brought forth, or you had formed the earth and world,
4. be - cause a thou - sand years are in the sight of your e - ter - ni - ty
Lo, in the mor - ning they are like the gras - ses that sprout up a - new.
8. Be - fore you you have set our sins, our se - crets in your fa - ce's light.

e - ven from ev - er - las - ting and to ev - er - las - ting you are God.
like yes - ter - day when it has passed, and like a watch dur - ing the night.
6. They flour - ish and they grow by noon. Toward eve - ning they're cut down and die.
9. For in your wrath we've passed our days. We like a sigh have spent our years.
