

Psalm 92

A song, a psalm for the Sabbath Day

1.It is good to give thanks un - to the LORD, and to sing prai - ses to your name, Most High;
5.O LORD, how mar - ve - lous ~ are your works! Your pur - pos - es are ver - ~ y pro - found.
8.But you, LORD, are on high for - ev - er - more, 9.be-cause, be-hold, your en - e - mies, O LORD,
12.The right - eous man will spring up like a palm, like a ce - dar in Leb - a - non he'll grow.

2.to tell a - broad your lov - ing - kind - ness in the mor - ning, and your faith - ful - ness by night,
6.A sense - less per - son does not e - ven know, nor does a fool - ish man con - sid - er this:
be - cause, be-hold, your en - e - mies shall die. All who do e - vil shall be scat - ~ tered.
13.Those plan - ted in the dwel - ling of the LORD shall spring up in the court - yards of our God.

3.up - on a ten - stringed in - stru - ment, up - on the lute and harp, and with mel - o - dious sound.
7.when wic - ked men are spring - ing up like grass, and when all wor - kers of in - i - qui - ty
10.But my horn like a wild ox you'll ex - alt; I've been a - noin - ted with lux - ur - iant oil.
14.They will still bear fruit e - ven in old age. They will be full of sap and lux - ur - iant,

4.For you, LORD, by your deeds have made me glad; I will ex - ult in the works of your hands.
are fat and flour - ish - ing, it is so that they may be de - ~ stroyed for - ev - er - more.
11.My eye has seen my foes; my ears have heard a - bout the wic - ked who rise a - gainst me.
15.to show the LORD's up - right. He is my rock, and there is no un - right - eous - ness in him.
