

Psalm 109:1-10

To the chief musician, a psalm of David

1. Hold not your peace, God of ~ my praise, 2. For wic - ked and de - ceit - ful mouths
3. They sur - round me with words ~ of hate, and fight a - gainst me with - out cause.
5. Thus they re - ward me e - vil for good, and show me ha - tred for my love.
7. In judg - ment let him be ~ con - demned, and let his prayer be - come ~ sin.
9. Let his chil - dren be fath - ~ er - less, and let his wife a wid - ow be.

are o - pened wide a - gainst me now. They speak a - gainst me with ly - ~ ing tongue.
4. For my love they're my ac - cu - sers, but un - to prayer ~ I give ~ my - self.
6. Set o - ver him a wic - ked man. Let an ac - cu - ser stand by his right hand.
8. Let his life - span be ver - y short. His of - fice let ~ an - oth - ~ er take.
10. Let his chil - dren wan - der and beg and seek food far from their ru - ~ ined homes.