

Psalm 109:17-23

To the chief musician, a psalm of David

17. As he loved cur - sing in his heart, so let it come back up - on him.
18. As he with cur - sing clothed him - self as with his gar - ment, let it be
19. Let it be un - to him just like the cloak with which he wraps him - self.
20. Let this be the re - ward of my ac - cu - sers from Yah - weh him - self,
21. But you, O Yah - weh, Lord, for your name's sake deal gra - cious - ly with me.
22. For I'm a poor and need - y man. My heart is woun - ded with - in me.

As he in bles - sing did not take de - light so ~ let it be far from him.
like wa - ter in ~ his in - ~ ward parts, and like ~ oil with - in his bones.
Let it be for ~ a belt ~ with which he girds him - self con - tin - ual - ly.
al - so of those ~ who speak ~ e - vil a - gainst my soul with ly - ing tongues.
Be - cause your lov - ~ ing - kind - ness is good come ~ now to de - liv - er me.
23. I'm pas - sing like ~ de - clin - ~ ing shade. I'm like a lo - cust sha - ken off.
