

Psalm 110

A psalm of David

1. Yah - weh him - self says to my lord, "Sit down at my right hand un - til
3. Your peo - ple shall pre - sent them - selves as vol - un - tar - y of - fer - ings
4. Yah - weh has sworn an oath to you, and he will nev - er change his mind:
6. A - mong the na - tions he will judge. He will fill pla - ces with corp - ses.

I make your foes be your foot - stool." 2. From Zi - on Yah - weh will send forth up - on the day of your pow - er, in the beau - ties of ho - li - ness.
"You are a priest for - ev - er in the or - der of Mel - chi - ze - dek."
By his great might he will shat - ter the head o - ver a great coun - try.

the scep - ter of your strength, and say, "Go - vern a - mong your en - e - mies."
Out of the womb of the day break, to you is the dew of your youth.
5. The Lord's at your right hand. In the day of his wrath he'll shat - ter kings.
7. He will drink from a way - side brook. There - fore will he lift up the head.
