

Psalm 139:1-8

to the chief musician, a psalm of David

1.O LORD, you have both searched me and known me. There is not one thing
3.You win - now all my path and ly - ing down, and are ac - quain - ted 5.You have be - set me both be - hind, be - fore, and you have laid your 7.O where shall I es - cape from your Spir - it, or where shall I flee that you have not seen. 2.My sit - ting down and ri - sing up you know. You un - der - with ~ all my ways. 4.Be - fore there is a word up - on my tongue, be - hold, you hand up - on ~ me. 6.Such know - ledge is too won - der - ful for me. It is too from your pre - ~ sence? 8.If I as - cend to heav - en, you are there. If in She -

- stand my thoughts from far a - way.
know it al - to - geth - er, LORD.
high. I can - not at - tain it.
- ol I make my bed, you're there.