

Psalm 20

to the chief musician, a psalm of David

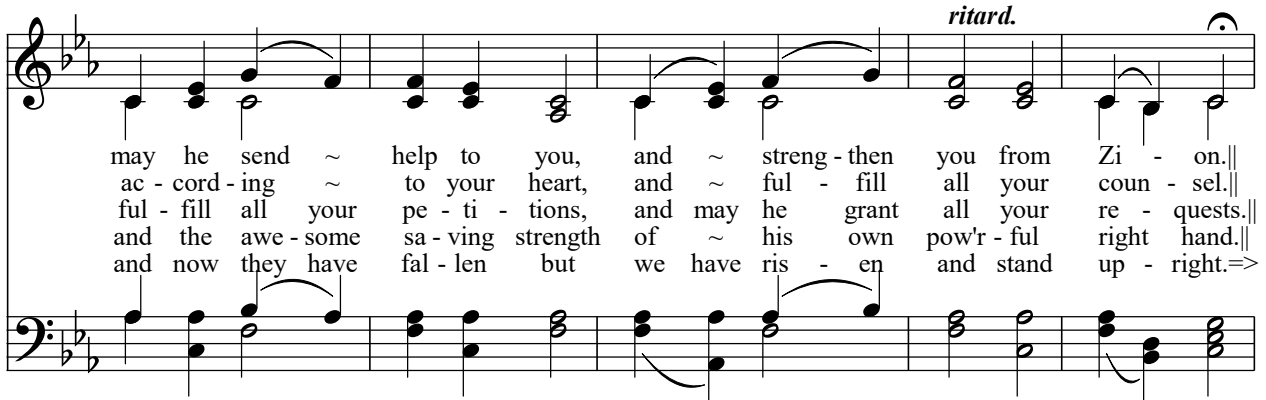

♩ = 110

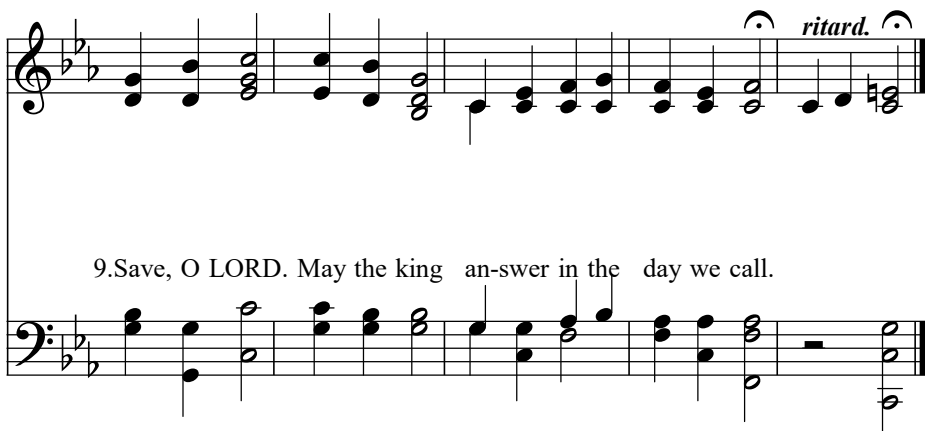

1. May the LORD an - swer you in the day ~ of di - stress.
 3. May he re - mem - ber all of your meal ~ of - fer - ings,
 5. O, we will now re - joice o - ver your ~ sal - va - tion,
 6. Now I know that the LORD saves his ~ a - noin - ted,
 7. Some boast in cha - ri - ots, some put trust in hor - ses, but

May the name of Ja - cob's God set you on high. 2. From his sanc - tu - ar - y and have re - gard for all your burnt sac - ri - fice. 4. and may he grant to you and in the name of our God our ban - ner raise. So may he, the ~ LORD, and he will an - swer him from his ho - ly heav'n. with his might - y ~ acts we'll re - mem - ber the name of the LORD our God. 8. For they have been brought down may he send ~ help to you, and ~ streng - then you from Zi - on.||

 ac - cord - ing ~ to your heart, and ~ ful - fill all your coun - sel.||
 ful - fill all your pe - ti - tions, and may he grant all your re - quests.||
 and the awe - some sa - ving strength of ~ his own pow'r - ful right hand.|| and now they have fal - len but we have ris - en and stand up - right.=>

9. Save, O LORD. May the king an - swer in the day we call.