

Psalm 21

To the chief musician, a psalm of David ♩=100

1.O Yah-weh, the king shall have joy in your strength, and in your sal-
3.For you have met him with ~ bless-ings of good. A crown of fi-
5.His glo-ry is great through ~ your sal-va-tion. Splen-dor and maj-
7.For the king does place his ~ trust in Yah-weh. Through the Most High's 9.When you ap-pear in the time of your ang-er Sure-ly you will 10.Their off-spring you shall de- ~ stroy from the earth and all of their 12.For you will make them turn ~ their backs in flight. You'll read-y your

- va-tion he will great-ly re-joyce. 2.You have giv-en to him the de-
- nest gold you have set on his head. 4.He ~ asked life from you and you
- est-y you have placed up-on him. 6.For ~ you have made him most ~ kind-ness he will not be sha-ken. 8.Your ~ hand shall find out all of make them as a fier-y fur-nace. Yah- ~ weh shall swal-low them ~ seed from a-mong the sons of man. 11.For they had in-tend-ed e- ~ ar-rows on your string toward their face. 13.O ~ be ex-alt-ed, Yah-weh,

- sire of his heart and ~ have not with-held the re-quest of his lips.
gave it to him, e-ven length ~ of days for-ev-er and ev-er.
blessed for-ev-er. You ~ make him glad with the joy of your pre-sence.
your en-e-mies. Your ~ right hand will seize all of those who hate you.
up in his wrath, and ~ fire shall come forth to de-vour all of them.
vil a-against you. They ~ de-vised a plot which they can-not per-form.
in your own strength. We will sing to you, and we will praise ~ your pow'r.