

Psalm 38:1-11

A psalm of David to bring to remembrance

♩=105

1.O Yah - weh, do not re - buke me in your in - dig - na - tion, nor ~ cha - sten
 3.There is no sound - ness in my flesh be - cause of your ang - er, nor health in my 5.My wounds grow foul and ~ fest - er from all my fool - ish - ness. 6.I'm bent o - ver
 8.I am fee - ble and ~ I am so se - vere - ly bro - ken. I groan be - cause 10.My heart is throb - bing ~ in me; my strength, it now fails me. The light of my me in your ~ burn - ing wrath. 2.For your ~ ar - rows, they have pierced deep - ly in - bones be - cause ~ of my sin. 4.For my in - i - qui - ties have flood - ed o - ver and I'm great - ~ ly bowed down. I go ~ forth in sor - row, mourn - ing all the of the tur - moil of my heart. 9.O Lord, ~ all my long - ing is laid bare be - eyes, it's al - so gone from me. 11.Those who love me and my friends stand a - loof from

- to me, and your hand has pressed ~ down heav - i - ly on me.
 my head. As a heav - y bur - den they weigh too much for me.
 day long. 7.My loins burn, and there's ~ no sound - ness in my flesh.
 - fore you, and my sigh - ing is ~ not hid - den from ~ you.
 my plague, and my kins - men, they ~ stand far ~ off from me.