1. Yah - weh our Lord, how ex - cel - lent is your name in all the earth.
3. When I con - sid - er your heav - ens, the ~ work of your fing - ers,
5. For you've made him but a lit - tle low - er than the an - ~ gels,
7. in - deed all sheep and all ox - en e'en the wild beast of the field,

You have dis - ~ played your glo - ry a - bove the vast heav - ens.
the moon and the stars which you have es - tab - lished in their place, and you've crowned ~ him with glo - ry and with great maj - es - ty.
8. the birds of the heav - ens and all of the fish of the sea,

2. From the mouths of in - fants and suck - lings you ~ have es - tab - lished strength
4. O ~ what is man that you ~ take an - y thought ~ of ~ him,
6. You have made him to have do - min - ion o - ver the works of your hands, ev' - ~ ry - thing that ~ pas - ses through the ~ path - ways of the sea.

be - cause of your foes, that you may still the en - e - my and a - ven - ger.
And what is the son of man ~ that you should ~ deign to vis - it him?
and you, O Yah - weh, have sub - jec - ted ev' - ry - ~ thing un - der his feet.
9. O Yah - weh our Lord, how ex - cel - lent is your ~ name in all the earth.
