

Psalm 7:1-8

A meditation of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite

$\text{♩} = 110$

1.O LORD my God, in ~ you I put my trust. Save me from all those who
 3.O LORD my God, if ~ I have done ~ this, if there is in - i - qui-5.Then let the en - e - ~ my pur - sue my soul in or - der that he should
 6.Rise up, LORD; in your an - ger lift up your - self be - cause of the fu - ry
 O for their sakes there~ fore re - turn on high. 8.The LORD shall ~ judge all per - se - cute ~ me, and ~ now de - liv - er me, 2.lest they tear me

 - ty found in my hands, 4.if ~ I've re - paid e - vil to him who was o - ver - take ~ me. Yes, ~ let him tram - ple down my ~ life ~ of my en - e - mies. A - ~ rouse your - self for me to the judg - ment of the peo - ~ ples. Vin - di - cate me now, O LORD, in ac - cord to ritard.

 like a li - on, rend - ing me in pie - ces while there ~ is none to de - liv - er.
 at peace with me, or if I have plun - dered my ad - ver - sar - y with - ~ out cause, in - to the ground and, in do - ing this, let him lay my hon - ~ or in the dust.
 you've com - man - ded. 7.So the con - gre - ga - tion of the ~ peo - ples shall sur - round you.
 my right - eous - ness and ac - cor - ding to the in - te - gri - ty that is ~ in me.