

Psalm 61

To the chief musician. On a stringed instrument. A psalm of David

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Hear my loud cry, O ~ God. At - tend un - to my prayer.
3. For you have been a shel - ter, a ref - uge, un - to me,
5. For, O God, you've heard my vows. You've giv - en un - to me
7. He shall a - bide for - ev - er be - fore the face of God.

ritard. a tempo
2. From the ~ end of the ~ earth I will call out to you.
a tow - er of strength to pro - tect be - fore the en - e - my.
the bles - sings of the her - i - tage of those who fear your name.
Pre - pare ~ kind - ness and ~ truth that they may pre - serve him.

ritard.
When my heart with - in me is o - ver - whelmed,
4. I'll so - journ in your tent for - ev - er - more.
6. You'll add days to the life of the ~ king.
8. I'll sing praise to your name for - ev - er - more,

a tempo ritard.
Lead me to the rock that is high - er than I.
I'll trust in the se - cret place be - neath your wings.
His years will be as ma - ny gen - er - a - tions.
to per - form my vows to you day af - ter day.